

SINGLE SIGN IN

Download your single sign in text file and open it in your text editor.

Change lines 25 and 26 by adding your Learner User Name and password where indicated.

```

1 <!DOCTYPE html>
2 <HTML>
3 <HEAD>
4 <TITLE> Redirecting you to the it's Learning 365 Learning Gateway </TITLE>
5 <script language="javascript">
6   function login()
7   {
8     document.frmLogin.submit();
9   }
10
11 </script>
12 </HEAD>
13
14 <BODY>
15
16
17  We are attempting to rediret you to the it's Learning 365 Learning Gateway.
18
19  If you are not redirected in 5 seconds click on the link below
20
21
22
23 Click here ...
24 <form action="http://itslearning365.com/portal/login/index.php" method="post" name="frmLogin" target="_new">
25 <input type="hidden" name="username" value="YOUR USERNAME HERE" />
26 <input type="hidden" name="password" value="YOUR PASSWORD HERE" />
27
28 </form>
29 </BODY>
30 </HTML>
31

```

Save the file as a HTML file and add to your learner desktop or start menu.

Double click on the icon to be directed to the it's Learning 365 Portal.

We are attempting to rediret you to the it's Learning 365 Learning Gateway.

If you are not redirected in 5 seconds click on the link below

Click here ...

Depending on your security policies, your learners may need to click on the Allow Blocked Content warning message at the bottom of their browser screen.